

(Scenario 3) "Where Heroes Dwell" – Wagram, 5 July 1809 8:30PM

Background: At 8:30 PM on the first day of Wagram, an intense seesaw battle rages along the Austrian front. Seeing his artillerists abandon their guns, his first line of defense falling back in disarray, and French cavalry threatening to turn his right flank into a rout, Archduke Charles rides forward into the midst of his wavering troops. The French infantry have been pushed back and all that remains is the French cavalry. The Austrian cavalry is committed, and FML Hohenzollern has arrived almost unnoticed...

Historic Result: Prince Charles personally leads IR42 in a counter-attack against nearby French infantry (not pictured). FML Hohenzollern having secured his own position personally leads a cavalry brigade into the melee. The French cavalry is forced back. Prince Charles receives a light shoulder wound during the desperate fighting but he has succeeded in stabilizing the front.

FRENCH VICTORY CONDITIONS

Eliminate all the Austrian units by Turn 5.

AUSTRIAN VICTORY CONDITIONS

Cause ALL French regiments to be eliminated and / or bad order at any End Phase or avoid the French victory conditions.

FRENCH ORDER OF BATTLE

Division Suhuc (E4)

Bde Gerad (G4)

Regt 8th Chasseurs a Cheval (8 figs - Grenadier) (G3) (*)

Regt 6th Chasseurs a Cheval (8 figs - Grenadier) (G5) (*)

Bde "Reserve" (D4)

Regt 9th Chasseurs a Cheval (6 figs) (Grenadier) (D4)

(*) The advancing units of French have been harassing the fleeing Austrian infantry off board to the North; hence they start out in open order from mopping up of retreating stragglers.

The 9th Chasseurs starts out in Double Line and is marked with a reaction move.

Division Cdr Suhuc is unable to move until Turn 2, being rather surprised by this sudden change of fortune.

AUSTRIAN ORDER OF BATTLE

Division - FML Hohenzollern (J5)

Bde Schnellern (J3)

Hessen-Homburg Hussar Regt (12 figs – Elite) (J3)

Vincent Chevauxleger Regt (8 figs - Crack) (J5)

Austrians have the initiative on Turn 1.

Units may start in any formation.

The symbol in E2 is the abandoned guns of an Austrian artillery battery.

Special Scenario Rules & Notes: This is an introductory level cavalry scenario. (The nearby French and Austrian infantry which participated in the engagement are not included). The scenario immediately ends if either player achieves their respective victory conditions. Bad order units that exit the battlefield are considered eliminated for purposes of determining victory conditions.

The French Brigade Commanders are considered to start in their Brigade Objectives squares at the start of Turn 1. Orders may attempt to be changed if so desired at the start of Turn 2.

"Regimental" Commander: For purposes of this game, a special sort of provisional sub-command (D4) of the original brigade is provided to the French player. This special leader operates as a brigade commander in every way and the reserve unit under his command functions as a separate brigade.

The "Wagram" steep slope sides (all squares in the column of C1 through C6) cost +1AP to enter. Units that which charge into, from, or through the Wagram slope at an enemy unit occupying a higher elevation space lose 2d6 melee dice.
